XXXII. RESEARCH MISCONDUCT

32.1 Annamalai University’s policy on defining and dealing with research misconduct adheres to national and international conventions on the issue and the policy statement issued by the Govt. of India on addressing situations related to national integrity, which is the foundation of research.

32.2 Research or scientific misconduct is defined as fabrication, falsification and plagiarism, self-plagiarism, or deception in proposing, carrying out or reporting research results. However, honest error or differences of opinion cannot be classified as research misconduct.

- 32.2.1 Fabrication that involves making up results and publishing them. A minor form of fabrication is where references are included to give arguments the appearance of widespread acceptance, but are actually fake, and/or do not support the argument.
- 32.2.2 Falsification which refers to manipulation of research materials, equipment, or processes or changing or omitting data or results such that the research is not accurately represented in the research record.
- 32.2.3 Plagiarism that involves the appropriation of another person's ideas, processes, results, or words without giving appropriate credit. Plagiarism also includes deliberate failure to appropriately credit prior work by others thereby giving a false impression of priority (citation plagiarism). Self-plagiarism is also considered as scientific misconduct.
- 32.2.4 Ghost-writing, the practice of commissioning an anonymous writer is also regarded as a form of plagiarism because it undermines the integrity of scientific publication system.
- 32.2.5 Unacceptable Authorship:
 Guest authorship refers to granting authorship out of respect for an individual, or because it will increase the likelihood of publication, credibility, or status of the work.
 Gift authorship is credit offered from a sense of obligation, or anticipated benefit, to an individual who has not contributed to the work. Ghost authorship is denying authorship to an individual who has made substantial contributions to the research or writing of a manuscript.
- 32.2.6 Violation of ethical standards in human and animal experiments.
- 32.2.7 Suppression or failure to publish findings adverse to the researchers' interests.
- 32.2.8 Failure to follow established protocols if this failure results in unreasonable risk or harm to humans or the environment and facilitating of misconduct in research by collusion in, or concealment of, such actions by others.
- 32.2.9 Intentional, unauthorized use, disclosure or removal of, or damage to, research-related property of another, including apparatus, materials, writings, data, hardware or software or any other substances or devices used in or produced by the conduct of research.

XXXIII. INVESTIGATION OF RESEARCH MISCONDUCT

- 33.1 A committee duly constituted by the University will investigate complaints of alleged research misconduct by the research Scholar and/or Supervisor.
- 33.2 Confidentiality will be maintained during the investigation including the identity of the individual registering the complaint (complainant).

- 33.3 If the misconduct is unintended, due to an error in interpretation, or the charges are baseless, the complaint will be dismissed. However, a report will be filed in the office.
- 33.4 If the complaint is credible, the committee, after informing the Ph.D. student and Research Supervisor against whom the complaint has been made (the subjects), will assess the authenticity of the charge, and the nature of the misconduct based on the material information available.
- 33.5 The subject will be allowed to defend himself/herself. However, he/she shall provide the Committee access to reports, raw data, electronic records, manuscripts and any other material relevant to the investigation.
- 33.6 The Committee shall complete its investigation and submit its report on the recommended course of action within a period of sixty days.
- 33.7 Annamalai University regards research misconduct as a serious offence and any member of staff/students may raise bonafide concerns confidentially and without fear of suffering a detriment. However, if the allegations prove to be made frivolously or with malicious intent, formal action against the complainant will be initiated.
- 33.8 If the charges of misconduct are proved, the subject(s) will be notified and disciplinary action initiated.
