15. ASSIGNMENT

Neither party shall assign any rights, duties or obligations under this MoU to any other party, without the written prior permission of the other party.

16. EXECUTION AND COUNTERPARTS

This MoU may be executed (including by facsimile or internet-based service) by one or more of the Parties on any number of separate counterparts. All of such counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument, and (if by facsimile) each such facsimile shall have the same force and effect as if an original.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The Parties agree to first mediate any disputes or claims between them in good faith and resolve the disputes amicably and share the cost of mediation equally. In the event that mediation fails, any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this MoU or breach of any duties hereunder shall be settled by Arbitration in accordance with the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation ACT, 1996. All hearings will be held at Chennai and shall be conducted in English. The parties shall each appoint an arbitrator who shall then appoint a sole arbitrator to preside over the Arbitration proceedings, and the award passed by such sole arbitrator will be valid and binding on both Parties.

18. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

This MoU shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India only. Each party hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Chennai for the adjudication of any dispute hereunder or in connection herewith or with any transaction contemplated hereby, and hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert in any suit, action or proceeding, any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of any such court, that such suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, or that the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper.
